Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Delvin Shroyer and Cleo Hullinger exchanged their wedding vows on October 2, 1959, at the Hughes County Courthouse in Pierre, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Delvin and Cleo's honeymoon night was spent in the then famous, Fawn Motel in Pierre; and,

Whereas, Delvin and Cleo gave life and love to two children, Kim and Teresa, and have enjoyed the love and joys of five perfect grandchildren, Bryer, Lexi, Tanner, Slater, and Shaylee; and,

Whereas, Delvin maintains a successful career in insurance sales when he is not working in his private garage on leather projects and woodworking, helping his family and friends with ranching chores, or joining in the camaraderie of a trail ride; and,

Whereas, Cleo loves to sew and cook, makes great pies, bread, and desserts, which she may have learned to do while working at Al's Oasis in high school, and since beginning her tenure in Governor Rounds' office, has indicated she never plans to retire; and,

Whereas, Family and friends mean everything to Delvin and Cleo as evidenced by their social life and the bonds they have with their children, in-laws, and grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Delvin and Cleo will celebrate their 50th Anniversary with a gathering of family and friends on Friday, October 2, 2009, and it is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of the state South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 2, 2009, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirtieth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Nine.

M. Michael Rounds
